WW Says Browder Will Tell of Red Deals with Dems

By WALTER WINCHELL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. Earl Browder, one-time No. 1 Communist leader in the U. S., will soon make new American history. This time on the side of law and order. Among others who will be flabbergasted by Browder's testimony before a Senate committee (not McCarthy's) will be Gov. Dewey of New York.

Browder will testify that the Democrats (and others) made numerous deals with the Reds. He objects to the word "infiltrated."

"We did not infiltrate the government," Browder is quoted as telling committee members, "we were invited."

Gen. Carter Clark, one of the very top men in the Central Intelligence Agency, has been summarily fired for making remarks critical of Gen. Marshall.

Sen. McCarthy is expected to demand that Sen. Symington step down from the McCarthy Committee before the report is filed on the Army-McCarthy hearings.

McCarthy will renew his claim that Symington's own words in the monitored phone calls clearly show bias in favor of Army Secretary Stevens.
